India	TBD	INDIA PARTNERSHIPS PROGRAM	This Annual Program Statement (APS) for the India Partnerships Program (IPP) is USAID/India's invitation to potential Resource Partners. These are private sector businesses (particularly Indian private businesses), foundations, financial institutions, entrepreneurs, investors, philanthropists, and others that can identify and suggest ways to utilize their financial resources to collaborate with USAID/India. This invitation is equally extended to potential public sector partners (e.g., the Government of India, public companies, as well as other bilateral and multilateral donors). The APS is also USAID/India's invitation to prospective Implementing Partners (e.g., NGOs, private sector concerns, and others) who can engage and work with Resource Partners. Mali	Cheick O. Coulibaly	Peace & Security/ OTI follow on - Counter Violence Extremism.	The purpose of this activity is to strengthen targeted communities' resilience to conflict and radicalization by working with Malian government actors and local communities to address priority development and reconciliation needs. USAID/Mali anticipates the need for quick impact activities that respond to community needs through tangible development investments and that challenge the worldview of individuals susceptible to extremism. This small grants program seeks to reduce the isolation of target communities and increase the legitimacy of both local and central Malian government institutions through meaningful civic engagement and to strengthen the resilience of at-risk groups against violent extremism. The components of this new USAID activity include: 1) Improve citizen perceptions of Malian government actors in targeted areas 2) Strengthen communities' social and economic resilience to negative external influences 3) Improve the role and voice of women and youth in political and peace processes in Mali.
